

Memo No.BS (IR-277/2026)/352(510)/2026

Date: 11 August 2026

To: Chief Commissioners
International Commissioners
Chief Scout Executives
National Scouts Organization, WSB/APR.

Subject: Bulletin #1 – 12th National Rover Moot, Bangladesh, 24–30 December 2026.

Bangladesh Scouts is pleased to invite Rover Scouts and Adult Leaders from National Scout Organizations (NSOs) around the world to participate in the 12th National Rover Moot, the largest gathering of Rover Scouts in Bangladesh.

Event Name	12th National Rover Moot
Dates	24–30 December 2026 (IST Arrival on 23 December, Departure on 31 December)
Host/ Organizer	Bangladesh Scouts
Venue	The Moot will be held at the National Cricket Ground, Purbachal– Sector No. 1, 300 Feet Road, Dhaka. The venue is easily accessible from Dhaka city (around 12 KM, 30 Minutes by road) and offers excellent facilities for camping, adventure activities, and cultural exchanges.
How to Reach	(a) By Air: Participants may arrive at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport (DAC), Dhaka. (b) By Road: Shuttle buses will be arranged from designated points in Dhaka City to the venue. (c) Detailed travel instructions will be provided in Bulletin #2.
Participants Eligibility	(a) Rover Scouts (Youth Participants): Aged 18–25 years as of 24 December 2026; (b) Unit Leaders: Adult Leaders (aged 25 or above) accompanying Rover Units; (c) International Service Team (IST): Adults aged 18 or above with proficiency in English & Camping experience. (d) Participants must be physically and mentally fit to engage in outdoor adventure activities.
Patrol Composition	Rover Scouts (aged 18–25) and Adult Leaders from across Bangladesh and abroad. (a) Each Patrol/Unit shall consist of 8 Rover Scouts (Youth Participants) and 1 Adult Rover Scout Unit Leader. (b) For female Rover Patrol/Units, a female Rover Scout Leader is mandatory.
What to Bring	Participants are requested to bring the following items: (a) Participants must bring their own tents and camping equipment (tent, sleeping bag, mat, torch, etc.); (b) Warm clothing and rain gear (December weather in Dhaka: 15–25°C); (c) Rover Scout uniform, NSO flag and Country Flag; (d) Traditional dress for cultural performances; (e) First aid kit and personal medications; (f) Materials for country exhibition (cultural items, crafts, food samples, etc.)

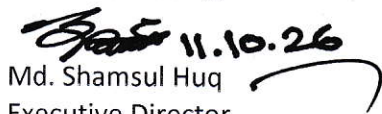

4

Program Highlights	The Moot offers a vibrant mix of adventure, culture, and learning, including: (a) Opening & Closing Ceremonies – Grand celebrations with flag parades and cultural performances. (b) Adventure Activities – Hiking, water sports, obstacle courses, zip-line, and team challenges. (c) Cultural Exchange – Country expositions featuring traditional dress, music, dance, festivals, crafts, and heritage. (d) Knowledge Forums – Sessions on Peace & Service, SDGs, Global Development Village, youth leadership, and health awareness. (e) Exhibitions – Showcasing Scouting traditions, innovation, creative arts, and cultural displays. (f) Campfire Nights – Folk songs, dances, integration games, and cross-cultural fellowship. Program schedule subject to minor changes. Detailed program will be provided in Bulletin #2.
Registration Fee	USD 100 per participant (Rover Scouts, Adult Leaders, & International Service Team). Fee Includes: (a) Inland transportation (from designated point of entry in Dhaka City to the Moot venue and back); (b) Accommodation (tent-based); (c) Meals (from dinner on 24 December to breakfast on 31 December 2026); (d) Program materials, participant kit, event scarf, and participation certificate; (e) Medical assistance during the Moot.
Registration Process & Deadline	(a) NSOs are requested to Submit Pre-Registration Form (Appendix 1) / Expression of Interest (EoI) by 30 August 2026 to moot@scouts.gov.bd (b) Submission of final participants list and full payment Deadline is 20 October 2026.
Visa Information	International participants are required to obtain a valid visa to enter Bangladesh. Bangladesh Scouts will provide official Invitation Letters upon completion of registration and fee payment. Participants are advised to contact the nearest Bangladesh Embassy or Consulate well in advance for visa processing.
Important Notes	(a) All international participants must be officially endorsed by their respective NSOs. (b) Participants are encouraged to bring cultural items for exhibition and cultural performances. (c) The Moot program will be conducted in English for international participants.
Contact Information	Deputy Director (International) Bangladesh Scouts, National Headquarters, Kakrail, Dhaka-1000. Email: moot@scouts.gov.bd , Phone: +88-02-48316651 (Ext-129); WhatsApp: +8801912841060 , +8801711586505 , +8801711081489

We look forward to welcoming all Rover Scouts & Leaders from around the world to the 12th National Rover Moot in Bangladesh!

Yours in Scouting,

Md. Shamsul Huq
Executive Director
Bangladesh Scouts
Email: ir@scouts.gov.bd
Contact: +8801720064771

12th National Rover Moot, Bangladesh

Pre-registration Form

National Cricket Ground, Purbachal– Sector No. 1, 300 Feet Road, Dhaka
24–30 December 2026

Please complete this form and submit it to moot@scouts.gov.bd not later than 30 August 2026.

1. NSO Information

Country
NSO (National Scout Organization)

2. Contingent Information (Estimated Numbers)

Please indicate your estimated number of participants below.

Category	Number
Rover Scouts (Youth Participants)
Adult Leaders & HoC
IST
Total	0

3. Head of Contingent/ NSO Contact Person

Name
Scout Position / Title
Date of Birth
Contact
Email Address

4. Endorsement

I hereby confirm that the information provided above has been accurately completed, and our NSO agrees to submit this pre-registration form.

Name of Authorized Person
NSO Position / Title	Contact
Date
Signature	